

Power Standard	Method of Assessing this Standard
IMT2 (WCCTS): Students will apply information literacy skills to access and evaluate media to design and produce media products.	Students will access and evaluate applications within the Google Apps for Education suite of products. A variety of products will be created using these tools.
ICT1: Students will analyze, select and use information and communication technologies.	